WEARABLES & ACCESSORIES

You and your cousin are politically polarized and the recent election didn't help. But if there's one thing you both agree on, it's that the Green Mountain State is slowly getting greener. That's why a KEEP VERMONT WEIRD CAP is both a perfect gift and a generous offering. Plus, the mesh-top will help her keep a cool head. $34 at Coldwater Color Mill in Waterbury Center and other locations.

For a militant vegan and car-charging member of PETA, your sister sure likes wearing a lot of animals. No, not fur—leaves. From olive stripes to fake snake she'll don it proudly. Add a touch of sophistication to her message with a colorful and eco-friendly CHARLIZE SCARF with leopard-like black spots on gray. $25 at Well Heeled in Stowe.

Your designer girlfriend's Italian baguette has the full Adobe Creative Suite and more a lot of her plants. Clearly she also needs a MASS METRIC BAKING RING—handmade from average bunsoms holding metal sticks. It's unique, sophisticated and smart, just like her. $75 at Fleck + Rose in Burlington.

Your grandma prides herself on being as tech-savvy as a millennial—she's all about perusing pics of her garden produce on Instagram. But when she's digging in the dirt, sometimes her iPhone takes a tumble. Help her protect it with a bulky OTTENBOK OUTDOOR CASE that says "tough and tenacious"—because, yup, it's built-to-gum-pick. $69.99 at Seno Dog Electronics in South Burlington.

Your preppy girlfriend has been running around town preparing for her final exams. Tell her, and the lady, stay safe and stylish in a pair of SORREL BOOTSIES with softer heels. With their new level of supple leather and minimalist lines, she'll rock them long after hobo comes. $229.40. Dear Lucy in Burlington.

It'll be cold outside. At least it's going to be, and nothing feels better on—uh, right?—this CASHMERE SWEATER. Treat your ladylove to a V-neck option by Repart, it's a splurge, but she'll cherish it—and, hopefully you—for years to come. $275 at Escal in Burlington.

FOOD & DRINK

Your college-age brother dived through his ramen stash during midterm week. Expand his culinary horizons with a variety of INSTANT NOODLES from Nepal, South Korea, Thailand and Vietnam: 50 cents to $1.99 each at Central Market, Tower of Asia in Burlington.

Your best friend insists she only ordered off their online battle of Hot Air instead because she didn't want it to go flat. Blow her the light, and the way to a healthier liver with the KUDU VINH SAVER (good for bees, too). It's so much more than a cork: $22.49 at Kuvvin Cook in Burlington and other kitchen stores.

Your little brother loves all things bacon, but you recently caught him misquoting that famous pre-cooked stuff to put his fix in a pinch. Help him step up to the bacon plate with some serious hardware: the WICK CAST-IRON BACON PRESS: $12.99 at Acacia Chow Farm in St. Albans and other kitchen stores.

Your sister is a Type A doctor's executive who likes an antiseptic and needs to calm the heck down. Dress up her fancy some Asian cooking at home using state-of-the-art equipment. She can pound away stress and fragrant spices using a HORTON AND PESTLE. And worst, this high end presser for good by some the Specialty Dishes (also called) like RAMBRO STEAMER: $18 to $22 at Thai Plant in Burlington.

At the age of 3, your pre-dreaded brother discovered love of pickles and announced she was going to be a "pick-dancer" when she grows up. Now 7, she hasn't learned an either but is better at pronunciation. Up her sour power with a jar of LYMAN'S COUNTRY STYLE PICKLED FIDDLEHEADS. Buries. It looks like a medical specimen jar of, something, $6.75 at Cold Hollow Cider Mill in Waterbury Center and other locations.

Your father-in-law is a wine enthusiast. You overheard that his dealer couldn't supply the coveted 2003 OPUS ONE CABERNET SAUVIGNON. As luck would have it, you discovered the only place in Vermont that stocks this highly sought-after vintage. It's pricey, but the pros say you're worth it. $270 at the Westfield Wine Shop.

ARTS & CRAFTS

You want to get your kids involved in a fun holiday gift, but don't have a clue where else to look for inspiration. You better not to go there. DAG HAPS "HAPPY EVERYTHING" PRINT covers all the bases and lets you receive festively inspired $26.40 the Women Store and other locations.

Your "fruity woman" cousin and her gal pals are facing four years of bachelors stitch-and-bitch sessions. There's also needs some help with the coffee pot. Get her up with a KNITTING KIT and a CERAMIC KNITTING BOWL, $32.50 and $32, respectively at Yarn & Yeggs in Bristol. Most dear find a set of REPURPOSED WOOD-KNITTING NEEDLES, $14.99 at the Penacott Gifters at Verde Mountain.

Your beloved grandmother provides a constant flow of treats and sounds and loves to serve them elegantly dishes. Show your gratitude with a VERMONT COUNTRY GLASS PRESSED-GLASS PLATE. They come in a range of funky colors and feature elegant floral designs. $22 and up at Ping Hollow Vermont Craft Gallery in Burlington.

Let's face it: Your cousin is vain. And foolish. She refuses to cover up her stylish outfits with a practical item. What's a perfect candidate for a handful of memories?

FROTH CHARLOTTE BOLL'S Just be sure to include a note that tells the story of the silly girl who tried to destroy a sleigh ride to the ball because she wouldn't cover up her pregnancy. $8.50 each at Vintage Impaired Lifestyle. Making place in Burlington.

Your dad/brother uncle in the city can't get enough of Vermont — he loves to sit, cycle and hike deep in the Green Mountains. You want to give him a unique memento that doesn't involve shipping maple syrup. Burlington artist Kevin Burke creates convincingly FALL-INSPIRED VERMONT TRAVEL POSTERS that celebrate the great outdoors. Put one in a frame and he'll know how the difference. $46 at rustlefire.com and local art and shops.

ARTS & CRAFTS

When you're stumped for a present for just about anyone, go ahead. Also, support a shrewd artist. No doubt your loved-ones-in-need would love a DAVID LARD ASHENBLADE. The resourceful White River Junction artist creates personal paper-inspired pieces, like a framed monochrome. Like any "Convector" with its graphic bullseye and geometric face. $3500 at West Branch Gallery & Sculpture Park in Snow.

You already know your niece is not one to color inside the lines. From her own surprising fashion choices to her ingenious fairy houses, she's got "artistic" written all over her. Encourage her creativity with HEINZ AND METZ STRICK'S COLORING BOOK, which features 22 fantastical illustrations. They're loose-leaf so you can frame them later. $29 at Artist in Residence gallery art. Albion.

When your grandchildren come over, they love using tape in their art projects. But they always steal it from your office supply drawer. You love the little buggers, but they need their own design tape. The ALEX TAPE & MAKE ART KIT has everything they need to up and stick their way to fridge-worthy works. $18.95 at the Collection in Westfield and other locations.

OUTDOORS

Your best friend isn't no Hallelujah Ball, but she loves Green Stitches. While it's winter for March, he goes for like a little longer in the new L.A.M.E., a collaboration of the pop singer and Burton. The Waffle Tee goes for $89.95. The SLID JUMPSUIT is a jumpsuit $309.95 at Burton in Burlington and other outlets.

Your dad's become an avid runner in recent years, and you've worn him down with FACEBOOK. The rubber and metal soles reduce the slipped-side effect of snowy streets, so he can complete his daily runs without letting the ice. $39.95 at Dunder Gear Exchange in Burlington and other locations.

Your thrill-seeking little has a need for speed. When it comes to sliding backcountry powder, there's nothing quite like the MAO RIVER RICKET SLID, which is especially designed for unopposed control and agility—and does so in a way that's not too much like a MAO RIVER RICKET SLID for the clear version so (maybe) can at least see through the ice. $299 at Orion Power Sports in Montpelier.

Your kid loves to pump on his mountain bike and head out the wilderness. You love his adeptness, but you're his dad, so you're his dad. He needs the OUTDOOR TECH SLICKSHOT PRO, a ring spinner and a lot more. He can mount it on his handlebars and play his tunes, charge his phone, light his way and even turn on the "brake" setting for a moment. $79.95 at Alpine Shop in South Burlington and other outlets.

Your best friend is always on the go, but you might just scream if you see her with a paper coffee cup one more time. Not just a travel cup, the HYDRO FLASK is the clear-purpose, hot-or-cold Nalgene of 2016. Get it in her favorite color and she may forget your annoying over-the-hill. Starting at $24.95 at Kieve Smith Sports in Mt. Morris and other outdoor shops.

You're spending the holidays with your Martha Stewart wannabe aunt who cracks out GIF presents from random objects. Think sensible gifts for the wine-shop owners. Give her new winepouches with a hard-sided MASON JAR COZY by Skunksborg to offer Brenda Pinot Noir. $18 to $32 at Rustic Thread or Red Fine Jewelry in Vergennes.

Even with a karaoke prompt, your drinking buddy howls the lyrics of a classic rock song entirely wrong, loud and hilariously wrong. Don't mock, give him a set of laser-cut MISTAKEN LYRIC COASTERS. Batched lyrics include "On a dark desert highway, Cool Whis in my hair" ("I've got two chickens in periwigs" and "Hold me closer, Tony Gamma" among others). $1.99 at Vermont Honeyglow in Middlebury.

Your best friend from college pushed over your garden when she visited you in Vermont last summer. Give her a taste of what she's missing in the city: a TINY AIR PLANT to fit her shoebox apartment. Prices vary at Gardener's Supply in Burlington and Milbrook. Even better, add an adorable little PLANT HOLDER made by Burlington woodworker Steve Hedrick. $15 to $30 at plantersandchairs.

HOME

Your George Jacob Ebbell 36-Inch has a thing for omelets and single-portion food. But then, when cooking in the winter pits and pans. Treat him to a TINK CROSS-CROSS WOOD FRY PAN, which crisps pan-fried, baked pastas and delicious meats with its hot iron surface. And it needs soap only once in its lifetime. $89 at Chef Goods Kitchen & Store in Shelburne.

You have your artist's hand but are kind of ham-baking on new imagery. Paintings, murals, whatever—if there's a cow on it, for instance. Develop better lines than that however you can. But, not to mention the sauce of that milk in the latte, with a set of ITALIAN WATER GLASSES slung up with your glasses. It's a cow—$5 each at Bennington Patterns North in Burlington.

Your brother isn't a credible hipster if he doesn't own a record player. Sleek, simple and customizable, the ORBIT BASIC TURNTABLE from Massachusetts Orbit Audio is the perfect fit—or, perhaps, four. Its store co-owner Xavier Jimenez describes it, the Orbit is "the feed-give bicycle of turntables." $179 at Rock Space in Montpelier.

KIDS

Your countless 2-year-old is already Daddy's little girl. She can milk a goat, knows the difference between a white cat and a blue deer, and will probably drive a Bobcat from her room before she's out of third grade. Her room, on the other hand, is a grubby-pink type who needs far more than a dose of Lysol & Taylor. Your compromise holiday gift, PINK CARHARTT OVERALLS, toddler size, $26 at Farm-Way or Redford and other farm stores.

You might not know that there are mud-pies in the world of baby animals, the most enterprising — but your parent friends probably did release the full, SWEETPEA AND FRIENDS: BEAR LITTLE POND is the true story of adorable underdogs. The books authors are Jennifer and Jane Churchill, farmers who tend to their flock on Mountain Farm in Essex. $2.99 at local bookshops.

Babies love hard crops just like the rest of us. But since your little girl's laughter can't generate a cocktail for another 20 years, get her an OH LITTLE RABBIT OH YES with a cute illustration of a beverage and an accompanying animal slogan. "Cheers!" It's 100 percent organic cotton, too. $10 at the Green Life in Burlington.

Your 10-year-old is a true graduate from Tales of a Fourth Grade Nothing to Superfudge. But her P&G-released friends, pasta parents and sugar-free school have kept her from even taking the buttery confection. Subvert these legends with her LAVA FLOW or SMOGGL PESTADO FUDGE, $9.99 per pound at the Shelburne Country Store.

You're pretty sure your grandson is going to be an Olympic athlete even if he is still in preschool. Get him started on learning the slopes as well as the ropes with the SKITON'S PROGRAM for children ages 3 and up (with accompanying parent). $495 for four lessons at Deerheads Ski Area in Richmond.

BEAUTY & BODY

Your water desperately needs to get dried. Help her relax after the hot stone massage with a WET STONE MASSAGE. Yep, placing water-heated flat rocks along the spine warms tight muscles and promotes circulation, enabling a massage therapist to work more deeply. Actually, who doesn't need this? In the $100 range of dry spas around Vermont.

Your new roommate is working out pretty good, so far—for a Craigslist find. Except for one thing: She smokes like a rusty chain saw and your apartment has thin walls. Get her a jar of MAHJUGRAH AROMATHERAPY by Aroma Sedona, which is purported to cure nasty roommates of nasty moods. It's so effective that the store owners offer a money-back guarantee, and claim they've never had a return. $19.95 (online), $29.95 (large) at Splash Naturals in Montpelier.

Your teenage nephew wears socks like a hipster: bulky like a hipster—and never can smell like one, too. WHISKEY RIVER SOAP FOR HIPSTERS will shed him in the snug aroma of bacon, coffee and craft beer. Are those things still cool? $15 at the Warren Store and other locations. (Also see soaps for other people who need to come clean.)

Tell us you'll. After all you've been through in 2015, raise your forearm—in solidarity or defiance—with PRIDE INC. A peace sign, perhaps? Staff and customers? Or maybe a scented massage like the one Frank Matulis (Gordell) "the change you want to see in the world" gives every week with color and care at Lotus salons around Vermont.

Your husband has put up with your crazy clan for 15 years now, bringing his Igloo Christmas and New Year's parties, being a stand-up rose at your brother's bachelor parties in Las Vegas, and supporting your sister's charity rides. Give him a run in the tub with "INSANITY IS HONORARY" BATH SALTS ($19.95) at A Little Something in Shelburne.

EXPERIENCES

Every year at your family reunion you're forced to endure your cousin's awful attempts at music making. Since something has gotten against the wall is not an option, go high. Give him a STRAIGHTICK, the world's easiest strangled instrument to play. $169 and up at The Jaded Traveling of Vermont in Bristol.

Your dad has seen the Godfather so many times that he can perfectly recite it from memory. So why not put him to the test? Rent him a MOVIE THEATER for a private screening party with 50 of his closest friends. $140 deposit at the Sissy Theater in Montpelier.

Your aunt wants to stay fit in her retirement, but she's not all there, so to speak. You know this, glad to the figure skating events every Winter Olympics, so why not help her glide her way to cardiovascular health? A SKATE-RINK PUNCH CARD gives her 10 sessions. Before long she'll be trying a camel spin. $40 at E. Douglass Center Recreation Area in South Burlington.

Your girlfriend is a bit of a thrill seeker. You've already gone spelunking in secret caves in Addison County. You've jumped off difficult Barre's Falls and gone scuba-diving in Lake Champlain. There's nowhere to go but up. Take her on a SLIDER RIDE a mile high in the sky. $208 at Supersub Seacliff in Warren.

Your mom is funny. No, that's not a "fun" name, just seriously, she's hilarious. But her material could stand some refining, and she could use some encouragement to truly realize her comedic potential. Enroll her in an STANDUP COMEDY CLASS, where she'll learn to "think like a comedian." By the end of the six weeks, she'll have a tight five-minute set, which she'll perform with her fellow grads before a live audience. $175 at Vermont Comedy Club in Burlington.

Everytime your dog's head switches "Owner of Theaters," he longs to feel the wind whistling in his hair. So, he'll bark across the Goldenrod Sea. Except he's a bit of a little bit scared of horses. Trust him to a TRAIL RIDE, and a professional guide will lead you and your sleazebag man. $60 and up at the Goldenrod Horse Farm in Poppleton.

LEARNING / CLASSES / BOOKS

Let's face it: All these Americans who are threatening to move to Canada—including your girlfriend—are probably not going to do it. Still, just away weekends in Montreal are romantique, so why not LEARN FRENCH anyway? Prices for classes and tutoring vary at Alliance Française in Burlington.

If there's an oyster happy hour within 100 miles, you best will find it. Over 150 pictures of shellfish, he'll guide the beginner about when the misadventure just occurred or wild-caught and the state of the oyster industry. Indulge has abundant info. Vermont author Robert Jacobson's THE ESSENTIAL OYSTER: A SALTY APPRECIATION OF TASTE AND TEMPTATION—a follow-up to his 2008 award-winning book, A Geography of Oysters. $35 at local bookshops.

You've always been eating a little edge to the office Yankee swap. How about WICKED PLANTS: THE WEED THAT KILLED LINCOLN'S MOTHER AND OTHER BOTANICAL ATROCITIES? Offering this field guide to deadly herbs also hints that you know what to do to the next person who makes naugahs left over fish. $18.95 at Turnport Books in Waterford and other locations.

During the holidays every year, you stop by your hometown library to see if the women who patronized guided you from Marcel the Spy to Woe and How. Show your appreciation for their influence by getting their titles, from THE BAD-ASS LIBRARIANS OF TIMBUKTU—AND THEIR RACE TO SAVE THE WORLD'S MOST PRECIOUS MANUSCRIPTS by Joshua Hammer. $25 at local bookshops.

Remember you're obsessed with a twist who actually likes to cook. Help him expand his culinary canon and techniques with any number of local COOKING CLASSES. Say the new year's list: Steven Kachewi, Bart A. Lawrence with chef Savitri Sankar, or French style at Café Doreen in Brandon with chef Robert Barod. Can you say coq au vin? Prices vary.

The election is over and now we all have to get along, right? Or all least do our bit for democracy. Help your incommensurable family face the music and fight the power with a copy of Sen. Sanders' OUR REVOLUTION: A FUTURE TO BELIEVE IN. $27 at local bookshops.

PETS & THEIR HUMANS

This past summer, your pals 18-year-old pooch joined Limes, Old Yeller and Marley in heaven. You want to memorialize her dearly departed best friend. See how it's done. Give the dog a photo, and she'll hand-paint the likeness of your pet onto a WOODEN TREE ORNAMENT. $25 and up at All Things Bright and Beautiful in Woodford.

Your Lab-loving nurse on the left coast finds on Vol 11, Int. artist Stephen Humicki's dog Chapel every time she works in Vermont. She's got all of his books, and probably reads them to Oscar (her Lab) before bedtime. Contribute to her canine collection with a humorous WELSH PONY featuring the black Lab—11 in the tail end of one and the nose end of the other, sniffling the first week's ball, $24.95 at the 14-page Humicki Gallery Dog Mountain in St. Johnsbury.

You know better than to buy clothes for your city-dwelling little sister. Even if you're all the right place, you're not willing to drop $400 on it. Why not drop for doggie in canine couture instead? The hand-knit CHILLY DOG SWEATERS come in style from blues, heather gray to eggplant, cobalt, orange and pink. $70 to $90 at Doggie Style Vermont in Colchester.
